COVERT INTEL: Iran Preparing for U.S. Tactical Nuclear Strike

Iran Army General Yahya Rahim Safavi and others are assessing the likelihood of a nuclear strike against Iran; specifically Pickaxe Mountain.

The General told his colleagues "this would be the most illogical decision." Then, he outlined why:

- The area of Iran is approximately 1.6 million square kilometers.
- A significant portion of the country's territory is desert

EN

- A tactical nuclear strike would undoubtedly inflict serious and tragic damage on Iran, resulting in numerous casualties.
- Despite this, a tactical nuclear strike would not destroy Iran, and the size of its territory would allow the country to survive.

The General and his colleagues then discussed what Iran would do in response. He said:

"In response, we will launch direct strikes at the Dimona nuclear facility and other Israeli nuclear centers."

His logic was cold reality. He made clear "For a country as small as Israel, this would result in a much more devastating collapse."

As the meeting ended, General Safavi lamented "The choice is up to the United States."

So while the rest of the world is looking at the ongoing hostilities as just another conflict, the Iranians are already talking about, and planning for, a US Tactical Nuclear Strike upon Iran!

If America attacks Iran's infrastructure and it responds in kind then:-

The Gulf States will be inhabitable and millions will have to move or die.

If America uses a tactical NUCLEAR WEAPON; then all of humanity is in DANGER. Once the nuclear threshold is breached it could escalate very quickly to all out NUCLEAR WAR!

This is serious: the situation is rapidly deteriorating into full blown conflict or WAR!

I'm looking at the article and the excellent comments below. The seriousness of this possibility and its ramifications cannot be overstated.

Trump's collapsing approval ratings (and 59% DISapproval), his ego, his grandiose man-of-action preferences, the agendas of those surrounding him, the background financial dilemmas, building domestic unrest regarding the headlong AI buildout, the growing feeling he HAS to be having that he is trapped, and other factors, make this scenario all too likely.

John Paul Jackson, who had a prophetic ministry, stated that Israel would strike Iran with a nuclear weapon.

While he passed in 2015, many of his statements are coming true now after his death.

This issue punctuates the huge changes that have happpened to America.
First question was: Is money safe in US banks or will it be frozen if the government doesn't like something?
That question was answered when the US froze Iranian and Russian assets.
Second question was: Will the US attack a country if instructed to do so by Israel?
That question has been answered several times most recently with Iran.
Third question: Will the US use its nuclear weapons to attack a country to change its policies?
That would be a BIG change from the concept that American nuclear weapons are only for defense.
Would Russia follow, would Pakistan follow? Israel? Turkey?
Will nukes become simply weapons of convenience?
The results of such an action are unimaginable.

Theatricality & Deception... lethal weapons used by the initiated elite-cabal, on the uninitiated DEAF, DUMB & BLIND stupefied masses...

ORDO AB CHAO = Order from Chaos
- ORDER is another word for CONTROL as in Control from Chaos

EXITUS ACTA PROBAT = Outcome Justifies the Deed
- The above phrase is carved on the Arch of Washington in NYC
- under the swords of Islam

The Trump character's role in this wicked menagerie is to usher in the greatest horror this realm has ever seen, nor will ever be seen again

The hour draws near for the evil government & corporate puppets of the elite cabal to activate their planned False Flag "Mass Casualty Event" and/or "High Profile Assassination Event" This carefully planned "False Flag Event" will justify their blood lust for war... war is not the goal, the war is simply a necessary step in order to set in motion the elites real objective... a TOTAL GLOBAL RESET

These looming events will bring about the WEF GLOBAL RESET/Agenda 2030... we are witnessing the greatest theft of global wealth ever in history... be it market manipulation (stocks, metals, commodities, currencies, bonds, etc), insider trading, digital pirates fleecing the simple minded and elderly, while CORPORATIONS & GOVERNMENTS CONSPIRING TOGETHER on a massive scale to optimize their power-base, their wealth position, their social status, their grip of control, etc

The elite/cabal will achieve this objective BY EXHAUSTING GLOBAL/LOCAL RESOURCES... (energy-fuel, food, water, medical, etc) meaning... EVERYTHING... EVERYWHERE ALL AT ONCE... will become scarce and/or incredibly expensive to acquire

Time is running out... get your mind, your heart and your soul "right" with the LORD GOD... you may not get another chance to repent and be healed.

if I can add to my earlier comment for days since fighting resumed expert or so called experts retired generals, admirals, colonels etc have said realistically the only way to breach Picaxe is to use a tactical nuke. The question also to be asked what kind of tactical nuke because the B61-12 free fall bomb is considered a tactical nuke but at 50kilotons its 2.5 times the strength if Hiroshima that wiped out an entire city....

I've been writing on here for months that their plan is to normalize nuclear weapons by nuking Iran, and that the Empire is going to sink the Lincoln.

It all in ipetgoatii on YouTube, along with the fake Trump assassinations, posted over 12 years ago.

Hal the US and Israel may try to hide this but China and Russia will not. There has been many red lines the west has crossed and RUSSIA tries to not take the bait as they KNOW with absolute certainty it's WWIII 3 and nuclear Armageddon. But this, this Russia cannot ignore the only non nuclear response they could inflict is multiple Oreshnik ICBM at Israel, and European NATO countries to cut off a snakes head. I would have to say they might hold back on hitting CONUS despite the fact it would be US and Israeli forces using the nuke. They could use momentary pause to push back from the brink that as one LAST WARNING.....

Potentially the worst decision the US would have made in the past 81 years if this happens.

Ultimate cowardice.

EN

Unprovoked nuclear attack.

The backlash is something that I'm not sure anyone in the Beltway is realistically thinking about.

This is Pandora's box with a flash-bang!!!

I've been listening to commentators talking about us using nukes on Iran. Preferably a very dirty bomb that would release a lot of radiation so they cannot go back to there nuclear facilities
